

STANSTED HOUSE and STANSTED PARK: a GREAT TEACHING RESOURCE - on your doorstep!

www.stanstedpark.co.uk

We are a fascinating 'upstairs-downstairs' house packed full of interest, and surrounded by lovely gardens and woodland: see lots more information and pictures on our website

We welcome visits from schools when the house is not open to the general public, and will discuss your curriculum and visit requirements in detail before you come.

Free parking for coaches and cars; free return tickets for all school children who visit; indoor and outdoor picnic areas on site.

Stansted Park is on the Hampshire-Sussex border, just north of Emsworth. Postal address: Stansted Park, Rowlands Castle, Hants., PO9 6DX

See our website www.stanstedpark.co.uk for more details, location map, and for images you can use.

Telephone us 023 9241 2265 to arrange a school visit.

Inspire your pupils to explore history; promote curiosity about a bygone age; stimulate imaginations with beautiful surroundings; admire fine portraits - discover, speculate, dream, wonder, guess, investigate...